

1. What are magic methods in Python?
2. Why are magic methods called "magic" methods?
3. What is a dunder method?
4. What is the naming convention of magic methods?
5. Why do we use magic methods in Python?
6. Are magic methods automatically called by Python? Give an example.
7. Can we call a magic method directly?
8. What is the difference between a normal method and a magic method?
9. Can we create our own magic methods?
10. What happens if we don't define a particular magic method in our class?