

❖ String Interview Questions

1. What is a string in Python? How is it different from other data types?
2. Why are strings immutable in Python?
3. What is the difference between indexing and slicing in Python strings?
4. Explain positive indexing and negative indexing with examples.
5. What is the difference between find() and index() methods?
6. What is the difference between split() and join() methods?
7. What is the difference between upper(), lower(), capitalize(), and title()?
8. How do you reverse a string in Python? Mention at least two different approaches.
9. What is string concatenation? How is it different from string repetition (* operator)?
10. What is the difference between replace() and strip() methods?
11. How can you check whether a string contains only alphabets, only digits, or alphanumeric characters?
12. What are the most commonly used string methods in Python? Explain any five with examples.